Coming Soon – By the January 22nd, 2021, inside your private label admin area, will be a detailed description of each funding program along with at least ten (10) direct lenders with their underwriting approval guidelines.

This will give you a full spectrum of business funding programs along with the direct lenders that you can take your deals to in order to maximize your commissions. There will also be a full list of business credit card provider links that you can either supply to your clients or you can do the credit card stacking for them.

The research on all these funding programs and providers is ongoing now to make sure that only direct lenders (no brokers) are on these lists, that we were able to discover their approval criteria, and that they all have good broker referral commission payment programs.
